

FAQs about Copyright eTutorials by Copyrightlaws.com

Do I need a password to access the lessons?

No, the lessons will be emailed to the email address you provide us. Just sit back and relax, and receive the lessons in text and .pdf format on any device you use to access your email.

Are the courses self-paced?

Yes, you may read the lesson, consult the recommended websites and take the self-marking quiz when it is convenient to you.

If I go on vacation or to a conference, how will I be able to keep up on the lessons?

You may access the lessons anywhere that you access your email. Away from email access for a few days? The lessons will be waiting in your email inbox when you return.

What is the anticipated number of hours for each eTutorial?

The amount of time varies but each lesson can take an average of about an hour, so a course that has 16 lessons takes approximately 16 hours to complete.

Is it possible to obtain answers to specific copyright and licensing questions

While we cannot provide legal advice, you will find all of our courses very informative and packed with strategic information that you can apply in your day-to-day work. Click here for an opportunity to ask your copyright questions.

Why take our eTutorials?

Our courses are short, practical, self-paced, and inexpensive, and there's no need to travel or physically attend a classroom. You will finish the course with added knowledge about copyright, great reference materials and a certificate of completion from Copyrightlaws.com.

Don't take our word for it. This is what our participants say:

Thank you for offering this course. I feel more "in the know" about copyright!

Paula Hardy, Interior Health Libraries, Kamloops, BC

The e-lessons in the course, Managing Copyright Issues, were very clear and easy to understand – despite the complexity of the issues. I would definitely recommend this course to others.

Jody Gripp, Tacoma Public Library, Washington State

Thank you very much [for instructing Developing A Copyright Policy.] This course has forced us to put down on paper what we need to move copyright forward in our institution.

Patricia Sutherland, Library Manager, College of the North Atlantic – Qatar

A super course. I appreciated getting your prompt feedback after posting my assignments in the course, Developing A Copyright Policy.

Lynn Hughes, College of the Rockies Library, British Columbia

I was expecting a lot of reading in this course [Canadian Copyright Law], however the lessons are compacted with a lot of information and written for the layperson.

Karen Mah, Head, Information Centre, Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada, Lethbridge, Alberta
